

GIUDIZIO UNIVERSALE

HOUSE RULES

We kindly ask the audience of the show
“Giudizio Universale. Michelangelo and the secrets of the Sistine Chapel” to comply with the following rules.

A valid ticket is necessary to gain entry to the theatre. The ticket must be kept with you during the show performance, and upon request, you must show your ticket to the theatre staff. The ticket is only valid for the seat indicated on it.

Latecomers are not guaranteed access to their purchased seat and may be asked to sit in an alternative seat to avoid disruption.

Children under the age of four have free admission provided that they sit on your lap. For people with disabilities free tickets and discounts are available.

It is mandatory to leave helmets, umbrellas, suitcases, backpacks, cameras and other recording equipment in the cloakroom. The cloakroom is a charging service.

It is forbidden:

- The use of mobile phones, even in silence mode, as the light from the screens can disturb the rest of the audience and the performers.
- The use of recording equipment of any kind.
- It's not possible to bring animals into the hall.
- Smoking in the theatre, according to Law 584/75.
- Bringing glass containers, bottles and food into the theatre.

For any problem, the audience is kindly asked to contact the theatre staff.

Artainment Worldwide Shows reserves the right to make any alterations to the advertised show schedule rendered necessary by unavoidable causes.

Please consult the “Terms and Conditions of Sale” on our website for the detailed ticketing policy on exchanges, cancellations and refunds.

Thank you for your cooperation.
